Maybe you're between Student 'digs' and need to put your stuff in store, maybe you just need to store your stuff while you're abroad, or maybe you just need a cheap no-nonsense way of getting your baggage and other kit over to France, Spain, Greece, even darkest Peru.

If any of this looks good to you, then get in touch and enquire about Britannia's Student services. You can take advantage of our preferential Student discounts off a range of services by just calling or emailing your local office.
